

Notes For The Margin Of Your Bible

"But sanctify the Lord God in your hearts, and always be ready to give a defense to everyone who asks you a reason for the hope that is in you, with meekness and fear..." (1 Peter 3:15).

I have always been a strong advocate for writing notes in the margins of your Bible. Unfortunately, many of the notes we make lack meaning several years later. This small collection of Bible references might be useful to you in future Bible studies.

For seven years Harry Lewis and I hosted a call-in radio program in Evansville,

Indiana. When a caller asked a Bible question, I needed to be able to find related passages for the topic under consideration. At the bottom of this page you will find a copy of the notes I placed around John 3:16 in my wide margin Bible. Callers often went to this passage to prove "salvation by faith alone." In the margin of my Bible I noted several other verses dealing with salvation. If I could not recall these verses from rote memory, I could always remember to turn to John 3:16 and find a ready set of notes for discussion.

The list of scriptures you will find inside this handout are for those who want to "always be ready" to answer Bible questions. I suggest you write the related references in the margin of your Bible. For example, next to Galatians 5:4, a well known passage dealing with apostasy, write down Ezek. 18:24, Jas. 5:19, 1 Tim. 1:9, 2 Tim. 2:16-18, Acts 8:22 and Hebrews 6:4-7. You should do the same thing for all topics. You might want to cut out the index found on page three and tape it to the inside of the front cover of your Bible. 🙏

4 But Jesus did not commit Himself to them, because He knew all men, 5 and had no need that anyone should testify of man, for He knew what was in man.

THE NEW BIRTH

3 There was a man of the Pharisees named Nicodemus, a ruler of the Jews.

2 This man came to Jesus by night and said to Him, "Rabbi, we know that You are a teacher come from God; for no one can do these signs that You do unless God is with him."

13 "No one has ascended to heaven but He who came down from heaven, that is, the Son of Man who is in heaven.

14 "And as Moses lifted up the serpent in the wilderness, even so must the Son of Man be lifted up, 15 "that whoever believes in Him should not perish but have eternal life.

16 "For God so loved the world that He gave His only begotten Son, that whoever believes in Him should not perish but have everlasting life.
